Postcode is a zones identification number or a system of numbers assigned to some areas or communities and settlements within Local Governments Area (LGA) which do not add value to them but represent a message or information linking a community or property to record and tax bills.

Each Postcode area consists of settlements, communities and Local Government Areas within a state. The Postcode system provides the basis for property identification, land-use analysis, tax design, Street naming, project planning and monitoring.

It provides basis for developing baseline information on settlement patterns, household survey, infrastructural service delivery and refuse collection. Generally, it is a tool for urban management.

Urban management activities in cites involve housing delivery, access to infrastructure, physical planning, urban administration, and social services provision at the federal, state and local government levels. A postcode can therefore be used as a supporting tool to perform these management activities with the aid of satellite images that can upgrade existing information on management activities
